

Asa-no-ha Toji Bindwijze

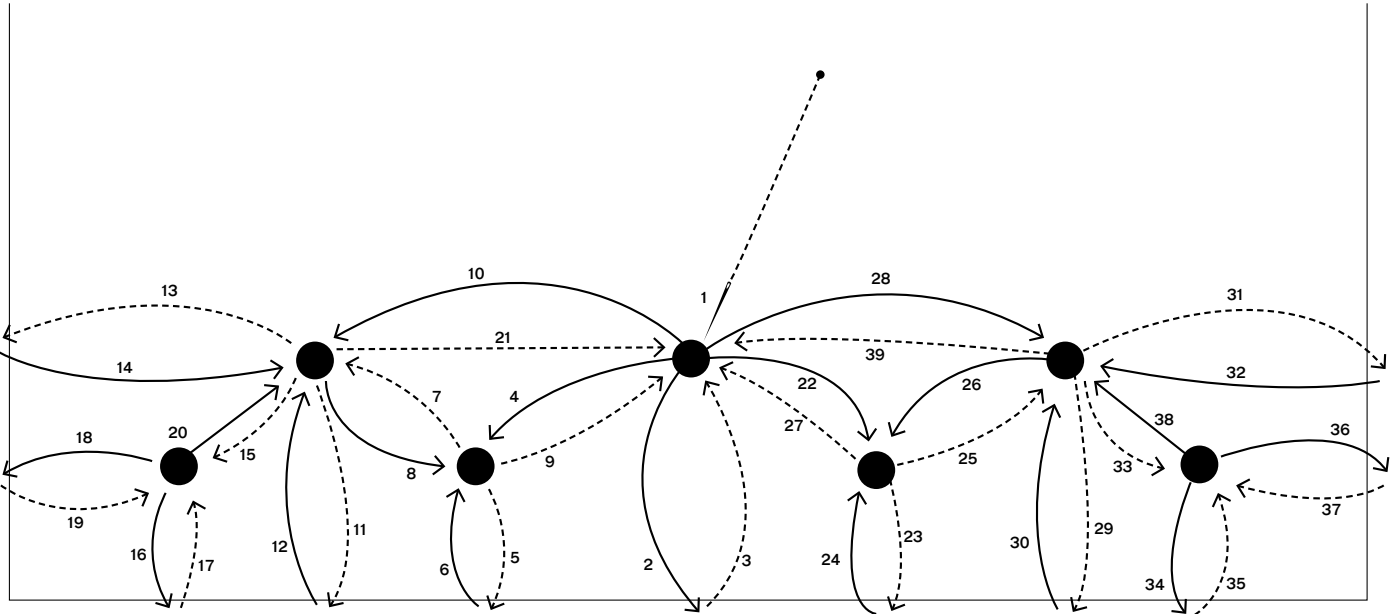

Variatie
Japanse bindwijze

Draadlengte
5 maal de hoogte van de publicatie

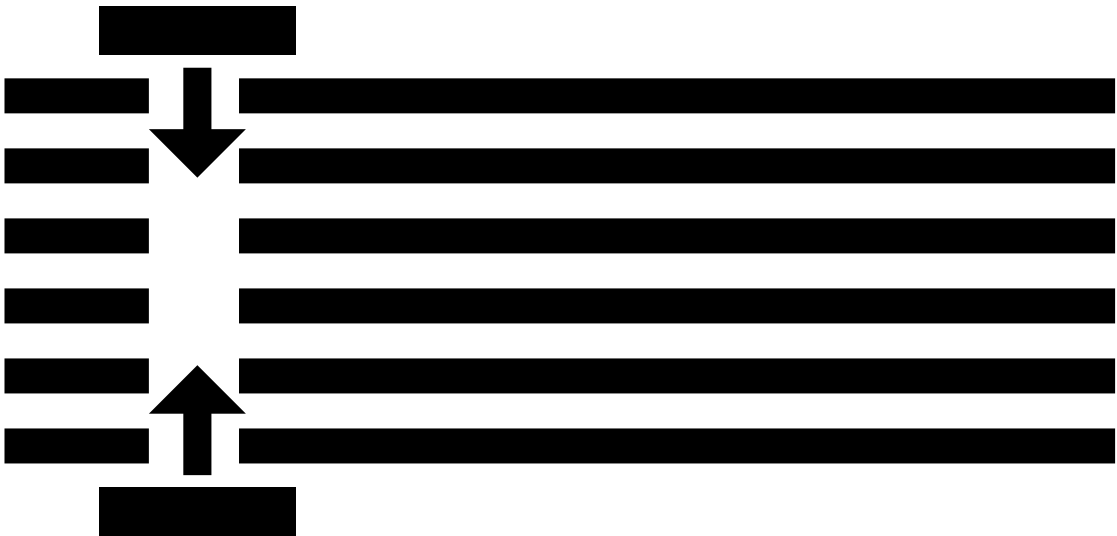

Draadschema

(1) Zet het begin van het touw vast met een stukje tape
Volg vervolgens de nummers

Japanse bindwijze

Klemmen

Type techniek
Op de rug

Volgorde
Schoonsnijden
Op volgorde leggen
Gaten uitmeten
Boren
Binden

Tijdsduur
60 – 120 min.

Kenmerken
Veel vrijheid papier mix

Geen goede
vlakligging

Omslag gelijk
mee hechten

Andere klem technieken
Boekschroeven
Singersteek

Japanse bindwijze

Gaten
Naar Keuze

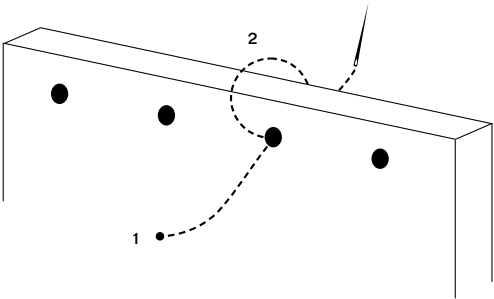

Draadlengte
4 maal de hoogte van de publicatie
(meer als je rug heel dik is)

Gereedschap
Papier boor
Derde handje boekkleem
Garen
Boekbindnaald
Schaar
Tape

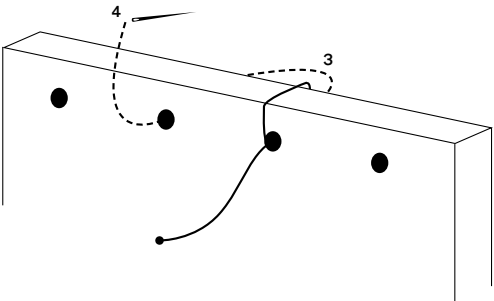

A

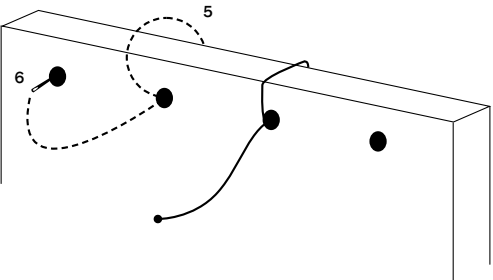

(1) Zet het begin van het touw vast met een stukje tape

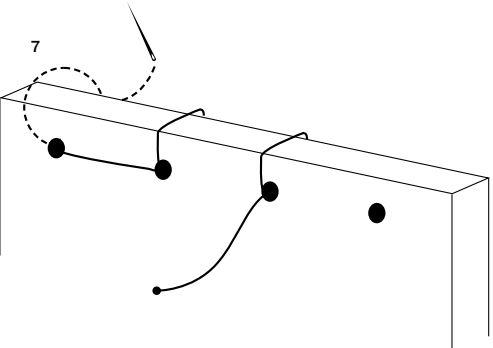

B

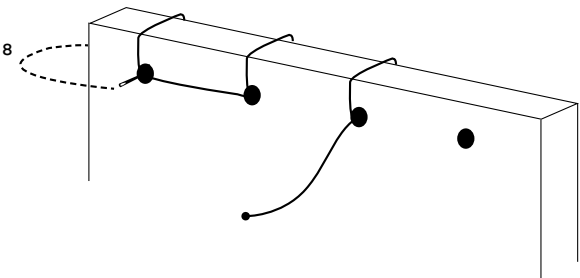

C

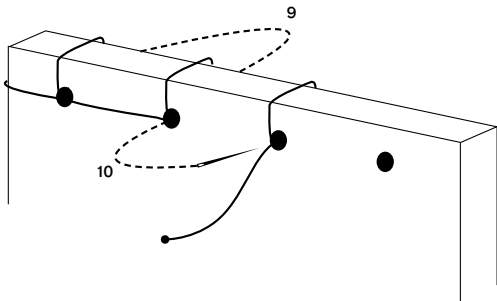

D

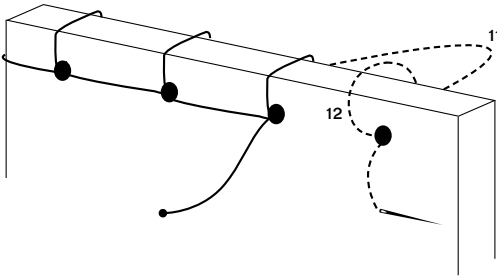

E

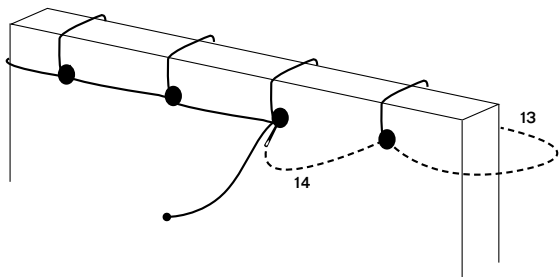

F

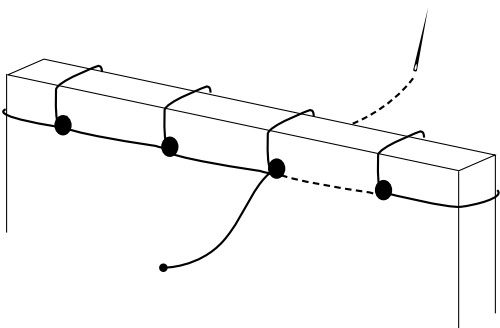

G

H

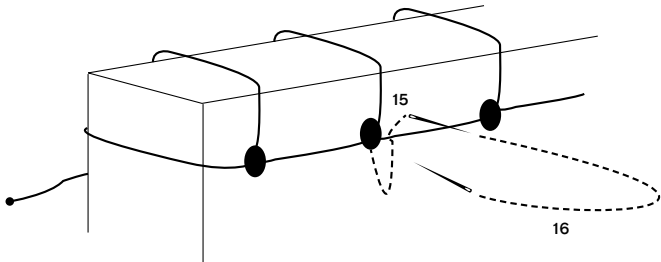

I

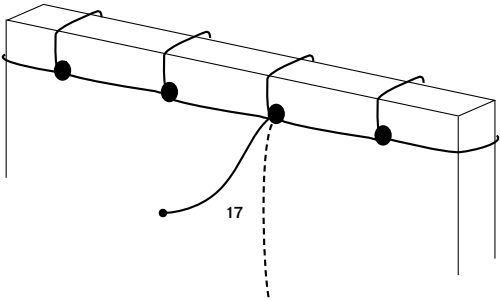

J

Let op: aanzicht andere zijde
(15) Naald onder het draad doorhalen van onder naar boven
(16) Naald en draad terug steken in het zelfe gat

K

Touw goed strak spannen waarna
Vastzetten met een dubbele platte knoop

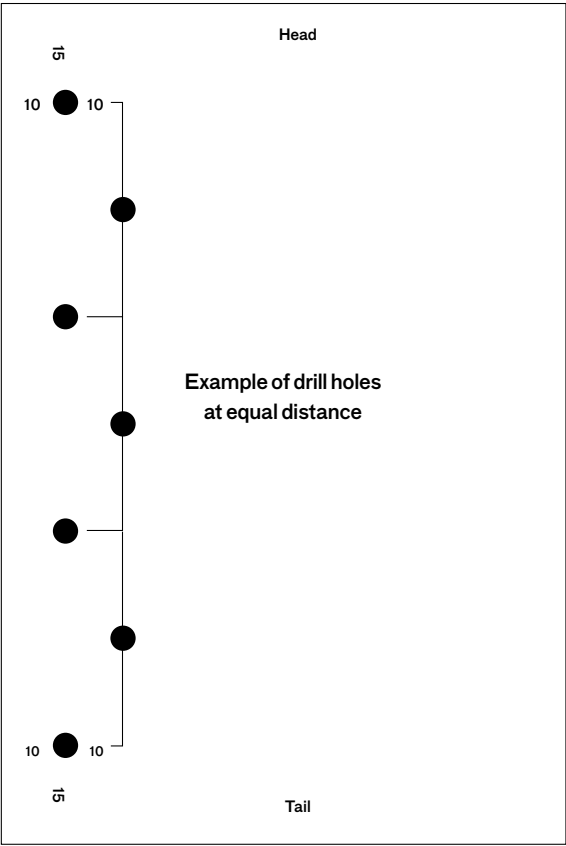

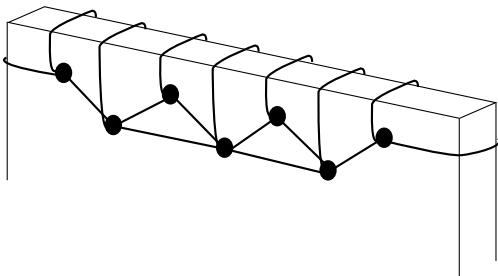

Asa-no-ha Toji Binding method

Variation

Japanese binding

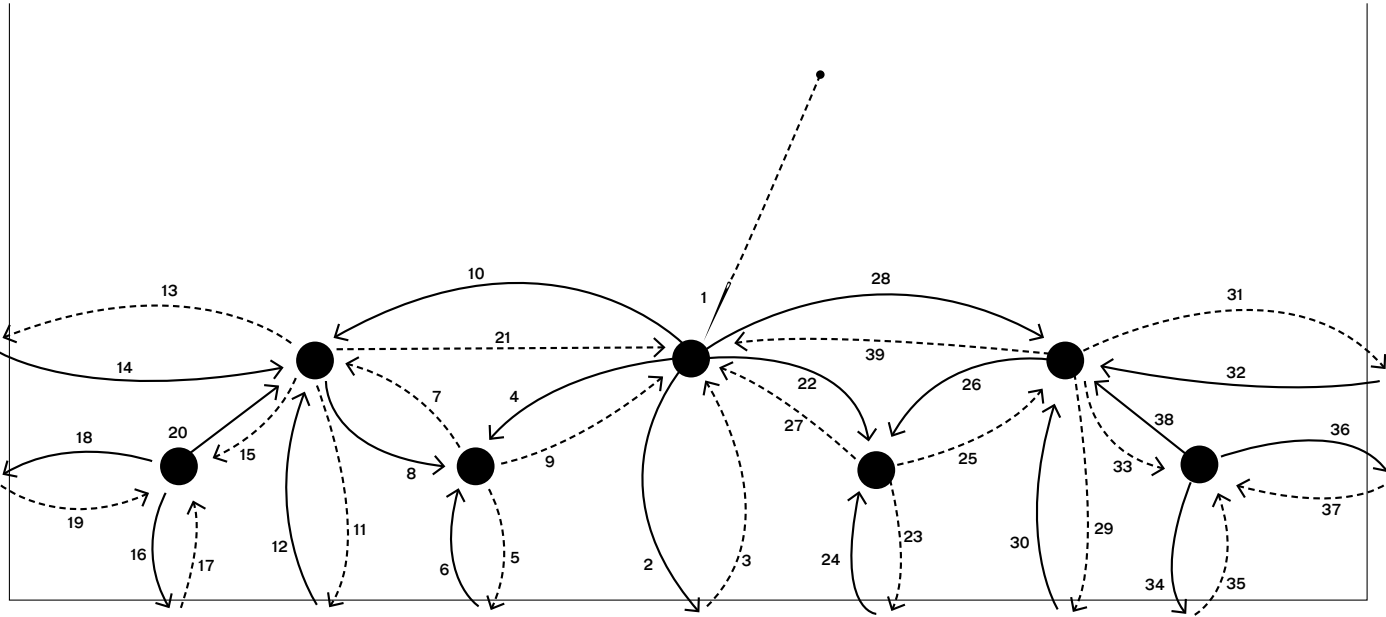

Thread length

5 times the height of the publication

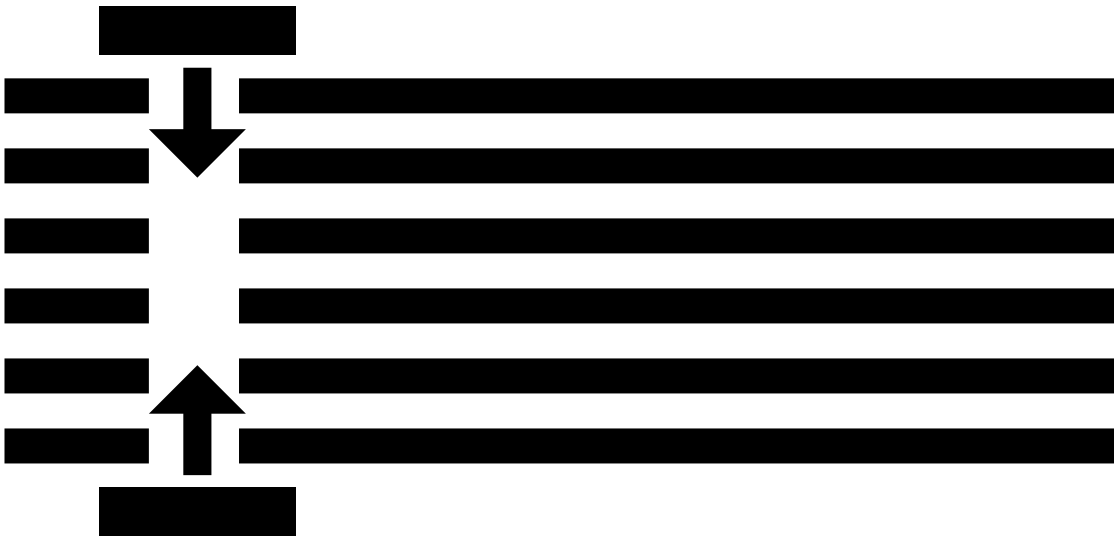

Thread Diagram

(1) Secure the beginning of the rope with a piece of tape.
Then follow the numbers.

Japanese binding

Clamping

Type of technique
On the spine

Sequence
Trimming
Laying in Order
Measuring Holes
Drilling
Binding

Duration
60 – 120 min.

Features
Lots of freedom
with paper mix

Doesn't lay open well

Attach the cover
at the same time

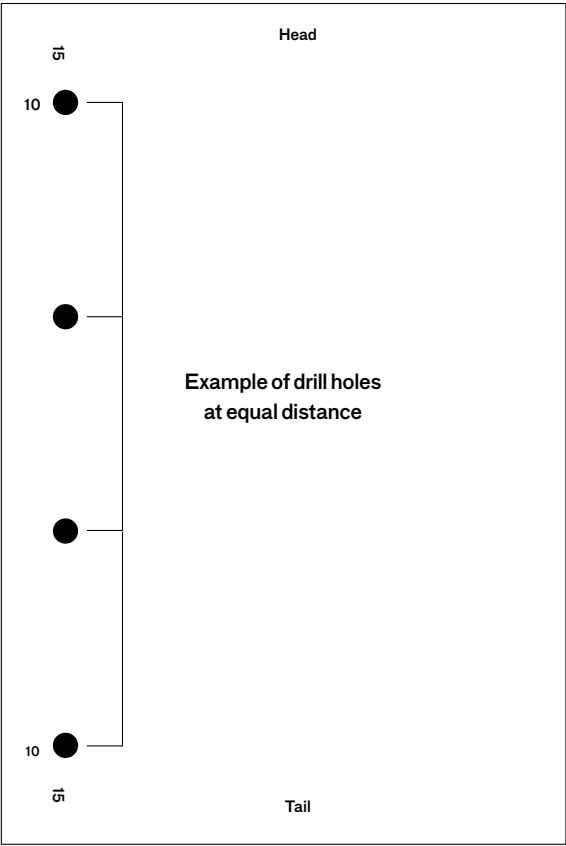

Other Clamping
Techniques
Book Screws
Singer Stitch

Japanese binding

Holes
By Choice

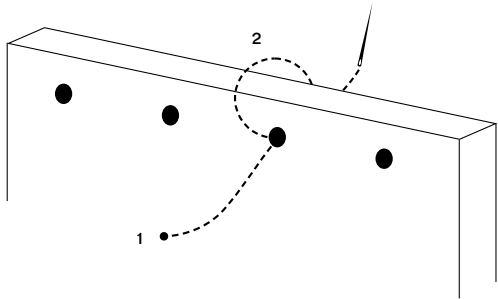

Thread length
4 times the height of the publication
(more if your spine is very thick)

Tools
Paper drill
Third hand book clamp
Thread
Bookbinding needle
Scissors
Tape

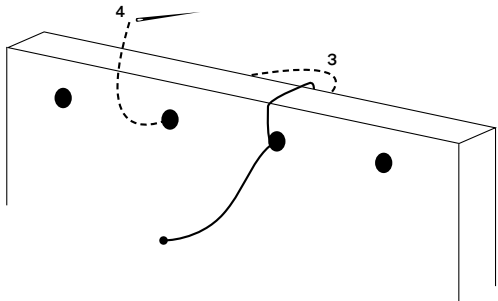

A

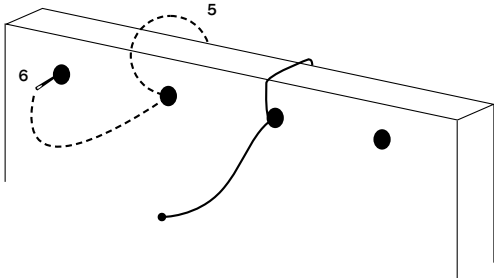

(1) Secure the beginning of the rope with a piece of tape.

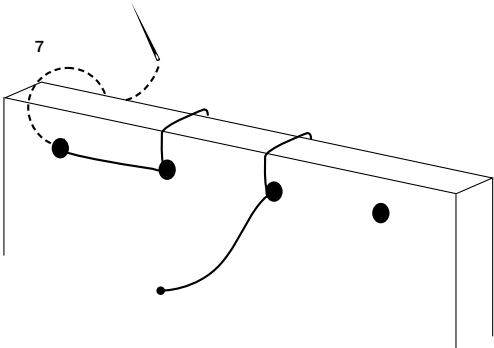

B

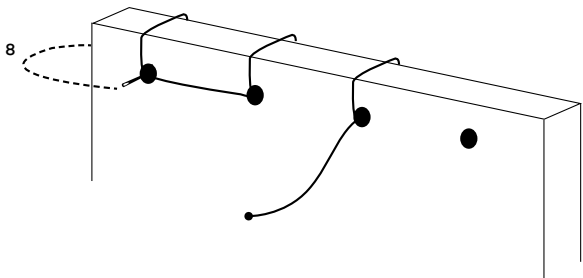

C

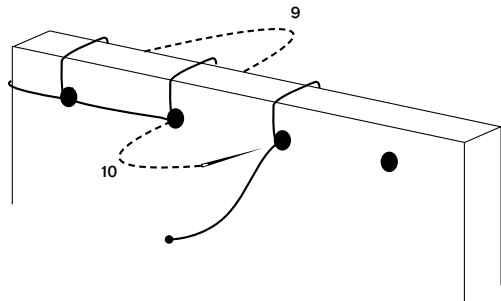

D

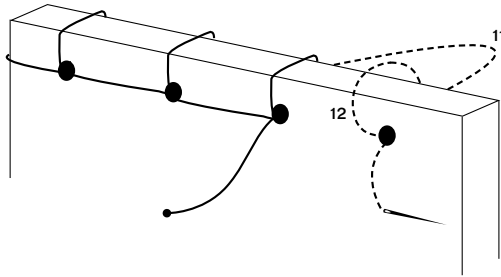

E

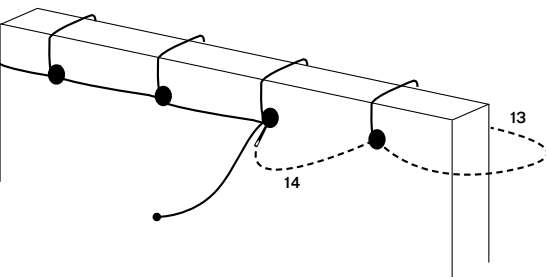

F

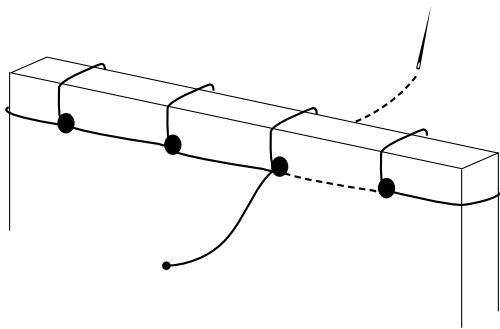

G

H

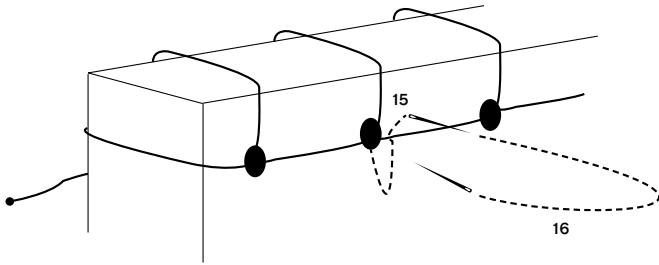

I

J

Note: View from the other side
(15) Pass the needle under the thread from bottom to top
(16) Insert the needle and thread back into the same hole

K

Tighten the rope and then tie it with a double reef knot

